Went back to see my lovely girl Alex @dermaestheticsclinic today for some @lpgendermologie_uk - she told me that loads of you had gone to see her from my Instagram recommendation which made me so happy. I went to her to help me with cellulite and bloody hell, it worked and it stayed off. Today I just went for a maintenance session and for all my waxing!

The treatment really is amazing and it's just like an intense massage with this machine! You know how much I love exercise and fitness and there is no quick fix honestly, but this did help me get rid of all my cellulite in 5 sessions.

Not that there is anything wrong with cellulite!! For me I wanted to get rid of it after pregnancy but it's personal preference! Anyway, Alex you are amazing thank you!
